Mack: Kasama Backed and Funded Susie Lee, Now Must Answer for It

(LAS VEGAS, NV) — As voters in Clark County demand accountability, Assemblywoman Heidi Kasama is facing renewed scrutiny for her past support of liberal Democrat Susie Lee. That support included financial backing that helped Lee get elected.

Kasama did not just endorse Lee. As president of Nevada REALTORS, she publicly praised her as a “common-sense problem solver” and helped deliver institutional support. Records show that in 2018, $10,000 from the National Association of Realtors Political Action Committee, under Kasama’s leadership, was directed to support Lee’s campaign.

Now, Lee is facing national backlash after posting a vulgar late-night rant about President Donald Trump, writing, “So f---ing f---ed up. I’ll pray they f--- him to his face,” before doubling down instead of apologizing.

Albert Mack said Kasama cannot run from her record.

“Heidi Kasama didn’t just endorse Susie Lee. She praised her, helped fund her campaign, and called her a ‘common-sense problem solver,’” said Mack. “Now that Susie Lee is making national headlines for vile, unhinged attacks on President Trump, Kasama wants voters to forget her own record.”

Mack added that the situation raises broader concerns about Kasama’s judgment and record.

“This comes on top of Kasama having the most liberal voting record of any Republican in the Nevada Assembly, according to Nevada Policy,” Mack continued. “Voters deserve answers. Why did she support Susie Lee, and does she stand by that support today?”
